

SOTC Good Sportsmanship Award

Each year SOTC honors one of its members for demonstrating the ideals of Good Sportsmanship. Please take the time to nominate the member you think deserves this special recognition.

Look for someone who works for the good of our sport, whether actively competing or working behind the scenes. Someone who is willing to take on big jobs or little jobs, and has fun doing them. Someone who generously shares their knowledge with newcomers. Someone who enjoys their success, in training or in the ring, without gloating. Someone who tries to handle their problems without complaint. Someone who works hard to perfect their goals and to inspire others to do the same.
